

Index of Materials for August 17, 2009 Task Force Meeting

Document	Context for It	Preparing for Meeting
Agenda for August 17, 2009 (Item V on the agenda)	Indicates desired results and items for consideration	Review for understanding what will be done at the meeting
Level of Analysis (Item VIII on the agenda)	Indicates the level of analysis required for various aspects of a project at the planning, preliminary design and implementation stages, and what was done for the NBOL Study. (information only)	Use as a reference when considering the constraints identification and ranking.
Concerns and Comments Related to the constraints identification and ranking process from the Task Force Interviews (Item VIII on the agenda)	An initial list of representative concerns and comments taken from the interviews with the Task Force members in March and April	Review and add to them during the small group discussion.
Table showing constraints, what was being sought, and the source of information and constraints identified (Item VIII on the agenda)	The table shows what information was sought for each constraint and how the data related to the constraints was acquired and when	For your review. If you want more information, refer to the Study Report, p. 36-48 on the constraints identification process for the study or the documents referenced in the table.
Glossary (Item VIII on the agenda- for information only)	Provides definitions used by TxDOT, for example, "feasibility."	For your review
Recap of the Activities for identifying the constraints that were	The information and activities related to the identification of the	For your review

Document	Context for It	Preparing for Meeting
part of the public involvement (Item VIII on the agenda)	constraints mapping and ranking for the study.
Constraints Worksheet (Item VIII on the agenda)	Questions the small group will be asked to respond to regarding information on the process for identifying and ranking constraints and recommendations.	Review so you know beforehand the questions to be asked in the small groups.